

New CBPS online – module

Increase your learning on how to integrate Community- Based Psychosocial Support into ongoing programmes!

CBPS: Module 3

Welcome to the new CBPS online-module on fabo.org! This third CBPS module aims to provide concrete examples on how to apply and integrate a Community-based Psychosocial Support (CBPS) approach to ongoing programmes and projects. After completing the module, you will be able to apply the six core principles of CBPS and integrate indicators. The module will also introduce tools and materials you immediately can apply to strengthen you projects and programmes. The module is available in English and Spanish.

The module builds on the two previous CBPS modules on fabo. If the CBPS approach is new to you, we suggest you familiarise yourself with:

- Why CBPS? (15 min): a short introduction to Community Based Psychosocial support (CBPS), aiming to provide a basic understanding and key benefits of applying this approach in humanitarian response work, nexus and development projects. Available in English, Spanish and French
- What is CBPS? (45 min): introduce the concept of psychosocial wellbeing, and how the CBPS core principles relates to other standards. Available in English, Spanish and French

CBPS: Module 1

CBPS: Module 2

The modules are produced in collaboration with Learning Lab (DCA) and are available for all users on fabo.org. You need to sign in to find the training. If you do not already have an account, register for free and create your own fabo-login. You can also download the module to your mobile device, following:

1. Download the Fabo app for Android devices in Google Play. For iOS devices, please download the Fabo app from Apple's App Store. In the Fabo app, you log on and find the training in your 'My activity' view.
2. To download the learning site (while online) - click the download  icon: the learning site will now be available offline on your mobile device.
3. When you are back online, you can choose to sync materials to update changes and receive updates

We hope you will find the CBPS modules useful!
